

TIM S. PFEIFFER

Chief Operating Officer

E-mail: tsp@oxfordcommercial.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Tim currently serves as the Chief Operating Officer, where his responsibilities of managing the day-to-day operations include Finance/Accounting, IT, Legal, and HR. Tim originally joined Oxford as its Vice President of Finance.

Tim's past experience includes both financial and operational turnarounds and strategic planning. As Vice President of Operations for a multinational commercial lighting company, Tim was instrumental in guiding the successful financial turnaround of a local manufacturing division. Tim held various marketing and financial positions while at The Coca-Cola Company. In the telecom arena, Tim was responsible for strategic planning, mergers & acquisitions, as well as helping to manage two successful investor capital placements. Tim began his career working for PricewaterhouseCoopers, gaining most of his experience in financial consulting.

EDUCATION

Tim earned his Bachelors of Business Administration in Accounting from Baylor University and his Masters of Business Administration with a concentration in Finance and Organizational Behavior from Southern Methodist University.