PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Bob is one of the partners and co-founders of Oxford Commercial. He began his real estate career in Austin with Cushman & Wakefield. In 1992 the former office of Cushman & Wakefield and The Oxford Group merged to form Oxford Commercial, Inc., a full service real estate firm.

Accepted in 1997 as an Individual member of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors, Bob specialized in consulting and tenant representation projects for clients, including build-to-suit, leasing, sales, acquisitions, relocations and site selection. Bob is also a member of Urban Land Institute.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Bob's corporate representation experience includes assignments for Seton Healthcare Network, Silicon Laboratories and Whole Foods Market. Other clients include Catellus Development, Austin Museum of Art, Ballet Austin, Capital Area Food Bank, Johnson & Johnson and Miller Brewing Company.

Bob is part of an Oxford team marketing the redevelopment of the former Mueller Airport. See www.MuellerAustin.com.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

As a community volunteer, Bob currently serves as a board member for Meals on Wheels, The Trail Foundation and Downtown Austin Transportation Management Association. Bob previously served on the Boards of the Capital Area Food Bank, The Austin Chamber of Commerce and Center for Child Protection. He is a Leadership Austin alumni and is an active member of the Jack S. Blanton Museum of Art at the University of Texas. Past community service includes Habitat for Humanity, Junior Achievement, Austin Independent School District Mentor Program and University of Texas Mentor Program.

EDUCATION

A graduate of Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Bob received a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing.
